THE old Confederates, the salt of the earth, will meet here to morrow and make arrangements to go to the reunion at Louisville. The railroads have made a one cent per mile rate for the great occasion in the Falls City.

UNDER the provisions of a law just passed in Missouri, women can only wear on their hats the feathers of ostriches, chickens, ducks, English sparrows, hawks, horned owls and crows. There is a severe penalty for the use of any other bird than those.

BARN BURNED.—The large barn on Mr. John W. Holmes' East End farm burned Tuesday and all of its contents, including a lot of corn, hay, a brand new wagon, a lot of wire, etc. The loss is fully $1,500 with only $400 insurance. This falls pretty heavily on Mr. Holmes, who recently lost close to $5,000 by the failure of the Somerset Banking Co.

CAUGHT.—Hunter Reynolds, who shot Andy Carson, also colored, some two months ago, from the effects of which he died a few days since, was arrested by Marshal R. G. Jones of this place, and Policeman G. M. Siler, of Lancaster, at Ike Hays' house on Dix river Tuesday night and taken to Lancaster for trial. The crime was committed near the Lincoln line.

THE family of J. C. Snell passed through yesterday in a covered wagon en route to Dundee, Mich. Some four months ago they drove through on their way to Waynesburg to locate, but after spending the winter decided that the climate was not what was desired. The family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Snell and their son and they are well equipped for traveling, with almost an air tight wagon and three stout horses abreast. Mrs. Snell expressed her disappointment in both the climate and soil of the Waynesburg section, but spoke highly of the good citizens of that end of the county.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HIMSELF.—Howard Collier, son of David Collier, accidentally shot himself in the left arm at his home near Rowland last night. As he took a 38 calibre revolver from his pocket the weapon discharged and the bullet lodged in the bone of his arm, splitting it. Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, who was called, probed for the bullet but did not extract it. Mr. Collier was a soldier in the Spanish-American war and had returned from the Philippines only a couple of months ago. Dr. O'Bannon thinks that unless complication set up the wounded member can be saved.

EVERETT, little son of Thos. Plummer, of Rowland, died a few days ago of tuberculosis. About six weeks ago, Mr. Plummer had a little daughter to die.

LOUIS LANDRAM, of the Lancaster Record, has dubbed the day train between Stanford and Richmond the "Cold Molasses Limited." What do Capt. Phil Price and Engineer Henry Lammers say about that?

COAL BUSINESS FOR SALE.—Consisting of bins, scales, etc. A splendid stand and good business. The proprietor, on account of ill health, is determined to sell. This is a fine opportunity for some one. For particulars see L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

SEE the advertisement of W. H. Blakeley & Co. in this issue. They advertise a large farm near the flourishing city of Bowling Green with free colleges and a rapidly growing city of 12,000 people. Please write them for any information regarding this fine property.

LIBERTY.—G. "Hawk" Wilkinson has gone to Rugby, Tenn., prospecting. We trust he will return satisfied to make Liberty his abiding place, as his many friends will regret his leaving Dignity Dare, the famous horse of Mr. D. S. Carpenter, of Hustonville, was the most attractive object of the public square Monday. B. G. Fox, of Danville, bought four mules and horses here Monday at $100—News.

THE most remarkable March in the memory of the oldest inhabitant will pass in its checks in a few hours. The weather has been unusually warm all the month, with hardly any freezes, no snow and wind only a few days. For once at least the month came in like a lamb and went out like one. Weather wise people say the seasons always even up, but let us pray that for once they are mistaken and that April will not put on March airs.

HERE AND THERE.

Mares grazed at $2 per month, all bills paid before removal of mares; not responsible for accidents or escapes. Three miles from Shelby City on the Hustonville & Danville pike. CARPENTER & SANDIDGE.

GEORGE HUR,

One of the finest English coach horses in the State, will make the present season at my place on Silas Anderson's farm at $10 to insure a living colt, money due when colts gets up or mare is parted with, a lien retained on colt until season money is paid. George Hur is black, four white feet and white face, weighs when in good shape 1,600 pounds, stands full 16 hands, and is six-years-old the coming Spring. George Hur is model, supple and quick, a splendid driver, a quiet and safe horse at any work. He was sired by Ben Hur Major 273, 3135, Grand Sire Scott 2430. Dam, Jennie Beatrice Clydesdale. George Hur has some of the finest colts in the country, has proved to be a sure foal getter. George Hur is half English coach and half Clydesdale, best draft horses in the State. For further information call on or write Wm. Sprinkles, at Rowland, Ky., and we will all lovers of horses to call and examine George Hur. Care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

I will also stand my fine jack, Jim Porter, at the same place at $8.

WM. SPRINKLES, Rowland, Ky.

KING EAGLE.

King Eagle is 16 hands high, dark bay, goes all the gates with speed, style and action, sired by Royal King, 1st dam by Eagle Bird; 2nd dam by Red Lion; 3rd dam by Harris' Denmark, he by Miller's Denmark; 4th dam by Jim Bell, thoroughbred.

Nora, Royal King was sired by the great On Time and is a brother to the great Silver King and Allie G., the great show mare that sold for $1,000. King Eagle's 2d dam is the dam of Minnie Boyd, the great show mare that Matt Conen won everywhere with in 1895 and sold for $500. King Eagle is proving himself a great breeder of fine colored and high styled colts, his colts all having plenty of size; his oldest colts being three-years-old this Spring. There was one of his two-year-olds out last season that proved to be a great show filly.

King Eagle will make the present season of 1905 at my stable, 2½ miles west of Stanford on the Shelby City pike at the low price of $10 to insure a living colt.

Will also stand the great mule and jennet jack, Billy Keene, at $10 for mares and $30 for jennets to insure a living colt. Billy Keene was sired by the great Tom Keene; 1st dam by the imported Palermo; 2d dam by Levi Hubble's Prince, the sire of Joe Blackburn and Brignolia. Billy Keene stands full 16 hands high, black with white points and as a breeder, he is unsurpassed as a mule or jennet jack. Billy has had several two-year-old jacks to sell lately at $700 and $800.

Will also stand the great young jack, Jim Keene; he is by the great Billy Keene; 1st dam by the imported John Wells; 2d dam by Beecher. Jim Keene is proving himself a great breeder, there being two of his mule colts shown last year, one wearing the blue and the other the red in the same ring. Jim Keene will serve mares at $10 to insure a living colt.

Mares traded, parted with or bred else where forfeits the insurance and money becomes due at the time of such transaction. For further particulars call on or address S. T. HARRIS & ROBT. WOODS, Phone 72-Ring 3, Stanford, Ky.
